

Rules and regulations for book review competition

Promoter:

La Fabbrica delle Illusioni S.r.l.s. with sole shareholder and registered offices in Corso Filippo Turati, 15 Sc. H - 10128 - Torino (TO) tax code and VAT number 11683300013 registered with CCIAA Torino R.E.A. 1232722

Deadline:

Texts must be received by and not later than 25 September 2020.

Addressees of the initiative:

All Italian or foreign citizens provided they are of age.

Competition:

Your submission will be a comment on L'economia immaginaria by Mario Fabbri, (Italian or English edition) highlighting weaknesses and/or strengths, and formulating a critical appraisal of the theories set out and how they compare with the economic conceptions widespread today.

Texts:

Your submission will be in the form of an essay in Italian or English of at least 10,000 characters (without spaces) including a short initial abstract and should be sent to concorso@lafabbricadelleillusioni.it

Author identification:

A pseudonym may be used and reference will be made to this throughout the selection process. The participant must however be explicitly identifiable in the event of the rights for the publication of his or her text being acquired by the publishing company La fabbrica delle illusioni, as explained below.

In any case, the author's personal data including telephone and e-mail must be communicated at the time the essay is submitted.

Jury assessment:

Participating texts will be evaluated by a commission of three or more authoritative members who, in their irrevocable judgment, will draw up a ranking list, which will be published on the website

<http://www.lafabbricadelleillusioni.it> by 3 July 23 October 2020 so that the publisher La fabbrica delle illusioni will be able to perform the formalities set out in the points below within the following 30 days.

Publication rights:

Publication rights for the winning essay will be purchased by La fabbrica delle illusioni for 25,000 euros.

La fabbrica delle illusioni will also purchase, at a price of 5,000 euros, the publication rights for the best text submitted by a University student, unless said text is the same as the winning essay.

In that event, the publishers will purchase the publication rights for the second best text submitted by a University student.

La fabbrica delle illusioni will offer to purchase publication rights to at least a further 5 participants, who will be free to accept or refuse, for 500 euros.

Participants in the contest authorise La Fabbrica delle Illusioni S.r.l.s. to publish on its website one or more segments of their essays for a total not exceeding 5,000 characters without spaces.

Miscellaneous:

If problems arise, the dates herein could be modified by the organisers, to ensure the smooth running of the competition.

Other elements useful for the writing of the essay may be found at

<http://www.lafabbricadelleillusioni.it>

Turin, 27 January 2020
updated 30 March 2020

